INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Application-Guide Undergraduate
Dear Applicant,

We are very pleased you are interested in studying in Cologne! The University of Cologne is widely renowned as an international University. Hence, broadening our internationalization efforts is one of our primary aims.

The range of study courses offered here is as extensive as it is diverse. It is therefore important to carefully consider which study programme suits you best. Every effort is made on our part to ensure the very best study conditions for our international students. In order to enhance specific support for students from Non-EU countries, we introduced our programme “Studienstart International” a couple of years ago. This programme offers students exclusive mentoring and assistance during the initial stage of their studies.

Due to numerous legal regulations that guide the allocation of study places at the University of Cologne, application procedures are complex. This brochure is meant to assist you with your application and to facilitate a smooth and successful start of your studies. In case you still have any questions after reading this publication, please feel free to contact us during our public office hours, by telephone or by using our contact form.

We look forward to welcoming you as an international student at the University of Cologne.

A. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. What are the prerequisites for applying to the University of Cologne?

To apply for an undergraduate degree programme, you must possess a formal university entrance qualification to German universities (Hochschulzugangsberechtigung) and sufficient proficiency in German language.

a. University Entrance Qualification (Hochschulzugangsberechtigung)

A Hochschulzugangsberechtigung makes you eligible to apply to a German university. You can find out whether your secondary school leaving certificate is equivalent to a Hochschulzugangsberechtigung in Germany here:

www.anabin.kmk.org → Schulabschlüsse mit Hochschulzugang → Land wählen

Some common entrance qualifications and their eligibilities:

- General Entrance Qualification (Allgemeine Hochschulreife, Abitur): eligibility for all subjects
- Subject-specific Entrance Qualification (Fachgebundene Hochschulreife): eligibility for specific subjects and related fields
- Assessment test (Feststellungsprüfung) of a Studienkolleg or external assessment test by the Bezirksregierung Köln: eligibility for specific subjects and related field
- Passing an entrance exam (Zugangsprüfung) for the University of Cologne: eligibility for a specific degree course (see section C.5 below)
b. German-language proficiency

All bachelor courses of study at the University of Cologne are taught in German. The same is true of programmes that require a state examination (such as Medicine, Dentistry and Law).

There are no English-taught undergraduate programmes of study at the University of Cologne. Students must therefore demonstrate excellent German-language skills when they apply (also required for German citizens with foreign university entrance qualifications).

German-language proficiency is certified in several ways:

- DSH-2 or higher (Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang)
- TestDaF at level TDN 4 in all four test parts
- C-2 certificate from the Goethe-Institut
- Deutsches Sprachdiplom DSD Stufe II of the Kultusministerkonferenz
- Telc C-1 Hochschule or Telc Deutsch C-2

Exception: International applicants who earned a secondary school leaving certificate in a German-speaking country outside Germany (Luxemburg, Austria, German-speaking areas in Switzerland and Belgium) do not need to submit a language certificate.
2. Which degree programmes can I study at the University of Cologne? Where can I find the university’s complete listing of degree courses?

A complete listing of degree courses can be found on the website of the Central Academic Advisory Service at: www.zsb.uni-koeln.de → Studienangebot → Fächerübersicht (grundständiges Studium) [Also see http://ukoeln.de/VZUSX]

The Central Academic Advisory Service offers counselling for your choice of degree programmes.

All undergraduate programmes of study have restricted admission for incoming first-semester students.

3. How much does it cost to study at the University of Cologne?

The University of Cologne does not charge tuition fees. However, all students must pay a social contribution fee of around € 250 per semester, or € 500 per year. This fee also includes a public transit pass for busses and rail in North Rhine – Westphalia.
4. How do I apply to the University of Cologne?

There are two applicant groups:

a. EU/EEA citizens, German citizens with foreign university entrance qualification (and Non-EU/EEA citizens under same admission regulations as German citizens – see below)

All EU/EEA citizens and German citizens follow the application and enrolment procedures described in section B.

Non-EU/EEA citizens under same admission regulations as German citizens also follow the procedures described in section B when the following applies:

1. Possession of a German secondary school leaving certificate (Abitur) from a school in Germany or from a German school abroad.
2. Residency in Germany and a spouse who is a citizen of another member state of the EU/EEA and is employed in Germany.

   [This also applies for civil union partners if the civil union has the status of marriage under German law.]

Other exceptions may apply. For questions about your particular case, please contact the International Office through its contact form: http://ukoeln.de/N3TD1

b. Non-EU/EEA citizens

Non-EU/EEA citizens follow the application and enrolment procedures described in section C.

*These are the two most important exceptions. The main statutory provisions governing these exceptions are: Art. 2 of the Vergabe-Verordnung NRW of 15 Mai 2008 and Art. 2 of 2004/38/EG of the European Parliament and Council of 29 April 2004 (OJ EC No. L 229, p.35). The provisions describe these and other exceptions.

If you are applying for a degree programme in one of the following faculties, you must have previously completed the TestAS and must submit a TestAS certificate with your application to uni-assist e.V.:

- Faculty of Human Sciences
- Faculty of Medicine
- Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences
- Faculty of Arts and Humanities
- Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences

(Applicants to undergraduate teaching degree courses are exempt from taking the TestAS.)

The TestAS (Test for Academic Studies) is a central, standardised aptitude test for foreign students. The Test may be taken in German or in English at a licensed test centre. Most TestDaF centres also offer the TestAS, though there are licensed test centres throughout the world. Test Dates are offered a few times a year, and you must register early. You can find test and registration dates as well as more details at www.testas.de.

The test consists of a core test and a subject-specific module that depends on the study programme to which you are applying:

Applicants to degree courses in the Faculty of Medicine and the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences must take the MINT test module (Mathematics, Informatics and Natural sciences)

Faculty of Medicine - minimum average standard score required: 108 (average core test and subject specific module)
Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences - minimum average standard score required: 99 (average core test and subject specific module)
Applicants to degree courses in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities and the Faculty of Human Sciences must take the GKG test module (Human, Cultural, and Social Sciences). Minimum average standard score required: 90 (average core test and subject-specific module).

4. What is the Studienstart International programme and what does it offer?

Citizens from Non-EU/EEA countries benefit from our introductory pre-semester Studienstart International for study courses in any of the following faculties:

→ Faculty of Medicine
→ Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences
→ Faculty of Arts and Humanities
→ Faculty of Human Sciences
→ Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences

(Applicants to undergraduate teaching degree courses are exempt from Studienstart International.)

Studienstart International prepares students for their studies by offering them German-language classes and introductory courses tailored to their degree programmes as well as a variety of intercultural modules meant to ease their start at the University of Cologne.
Thanks to its made-to-measure curriculum and its orientation classes, the programme increases students’ chances of finishing their studies efficiently and successfully. After fully completing the one-semester programme, students can begin their regular studies. *

You can find more information about Studienstart International on our website at http://si.uni-koeln.de/

5. Can I study at the University of Cologne without formal university entrance qualification (Hochschulzugangs-berechtigung) to German universities?

If your secondary school certificate is not recognized in Germany, as a general or subject-specific entrance qualification, the university offers you an alternative procedure to qualify for admission. You may apply for the University of Cologne Entrance Exam (Zugangsprüfung).

To be eligible, you must submit proof that you are qualified to study your intended degree programme in your home country (i.e. university entrance exam, certificate of enrollment) or access to a Studienkolleg.

Applicants for the Zugangsprüfung need to fulfil the following requirements:

1. TestAS certificate with minimum average standard score required (must be completed before the application)
2. The successful completion of the introductory pre-semester Studienstart International programme (see C. 4. above).

* Once students successfully complete the TestAS (prior to applying) and all exams in the Studienstart International, they officially receive the so-called Studierfähigkeitsprüfung, allowing them to begin their degree programme. Again, all Non-EU/EEA citizens, whether or not they are in possession of a recognized secondary school leaving certificate, must complete these requirements.
The Zugangsprüfung option is open to those who want to apply to degree programmes in the following faculties:

- Faculty of Medicine
- Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences
- Faculty of Arts and Humanities
- Faculty of Human Sciences
- Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences

(Applicants to undergraduate teaching degree courses are not eligible.

Students can apply for the Zugangsprüfung option via the online application portal of uni-assist e.V.. After applying online at https://www.uni-assist.de/online/uni-koeln send all the necessary documents directly to uni-assist e.V. by the deadline. Section C.2. provides a list of the documents to be submitted.

6. How am I notified of admission decisions and what are the next steps?

After your application documents have been reviewed by uni-assist e.V. and forwarded to the University of Cologne, you will receive login data for the university’s KLIPS 2.0 online application portal (https://klips2.uni-koeln.de/co/webnav.ini).

The login data will be sent to the e-mail address you indicated in the application you submitted to uni-assist e.V.
You can then follow the status of your application on your KLIPS 2.0 account.
You will receive an admission notification online via your KLIPS 2.0 account if you have been offered a space at the University of Cologne.

You must formally accept the offer of admission within five days using your KLIPS 2.0 account. If you do not accept within five days, the offer of admission will expire. You can download your admission notification (Zulassungsbescheid) from your KLIPS 2.0 account.

- Signed enrolment form (printout from Klips 2.0).
- Admission notification from the University of Cologne.
- Copy of passport and a passport photograph.

How do I change to a new degree course, beginning in an advanced semester?

If you are already enrolled at the University of Cologne and want to change to a new degree course beginning in an advanced semester the same procedure applies for EU/EEA and Non-EU/EEA citizens alike.
a. Students changing to a new degree course with open admission beginning in an advanced semester

Students must submit the following to the International Office:

→ Signed application form (Antrag auf Fachwechsel 1), which can be found on the International Office website at http://international.uni-koeln.de/wichtigeantraege.html
→ Copy of their passport or identification card
→ Recognition of previous studies and semester placement by the Examination Office.

What are the deadlines for changing to a new degree course with open admission?

→ For the summer semester: 15 May
→ For the winter semester: 15 November

b. Students changing to a new degree course with restricted admission, beginning in an advanced semester

Students wanting to change to a new degree course with restricted admission, beginning in an advanced semester must apply using the online application portal Klips 2.0.

In addition, they must submit the following to the International Office:

→ Signed application form (printout from the Klips 2.0 online application).
→ Copy of their passport or identification card.
→ Recognition of previous studies and semester placement by the Examination Office.
What are the deadlines for changing to a new degree course with restricted admission?

→ For the summer semester: 15 March
→ For the winter semester: 15 September

c. How do I find out whether my intended degree course has restricted or open admission?

The university’s Central Academic Advisory Service website can tell you whether your intended degree course has restricted enrolment. See here: http://ukoeln.de/V4SZU

For other questions about admission restrictions, please contact them directly.
I AM NOT ENROLLED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF COLOGNE AND WANT TO ENTER A DEGREE COURSE IN AN ADVANCED SEMESTER. HOW DO I APPLY?

If you are enrolled at another university and want to apply to a degree course in an advanced semester at the University of Cologne, the same procedure applies whether or not you are an EU/EEA citizen.

For all degree courses, with or without restricted enrolment, you must apply using the online application portal Klips 2.0 at https://klips2.uni-koeln.de/co/webnav.ini

What are the application deadlines?

→ For the winter semester: 15 September
→ For the summer semester: 15 March

1. Advanced-semester applicants are sorted into two groups. Which group am I?

Depending on your situation, you will be assigned to one of the following two groups:

a. Relocation students (Ortswechsler)

Relocation students are currently enrolled at another university in Germany in the intended degree course or were once enrolled in the intended degree course, but have now unenrolled.
Applicants will only be considered relocation students if their intended degree course has the same subject and degree designation as the one they are currently enrolled in or were once enrolled in. Otherwise, they will be classified as transfer students (Quereinsteiger). Even relatively small differences matter. For instance, Business Studies at one institution is not equivalent to Economic Sciences. The same is true for 2-subject degree courses versus 1-subject degree courses, Universität degrees courses versus Fachhochschule degree courses, or bachelor-level teaching degrees versus teaching degrees with state examination. In case you are unsure, please contact the Registrar’s Office.

To apply or enrol, it is usually enough to submit a certificate of enrolment (Studienbescheinigung) indicating which semester you are in.

b. Transfer students (Quereinsteiger)

Transfer students are enrolled in a related degree course or subject and have earned enough credits for placement in an advanced semester of their intended programme.

Note: Advanced-semester applicants from universities abroad are classified as “transfer students” even if subject and degree designations are equivalent.

2. Who determines my semester placement?

a. For degree courses in Medicine and Dentistry

The Düsseldorf State Examination Office (Landesprüfungamt Medizin der Bezirksregierung) will evaluate your transfer credits and issue a semester placement accordingly. See http://www.brd.nrw.de/gesundheit_soziales/landespruefungsamt/Startseite/Startseite_LPA.html.
b. For all other degree courses:

The Examination Office for the intended degree programme at the University of Cologne will decide your semester placement. You must have at least one semester’s worth of credits (usually documented by transcripts; in some cases a placement exam will be administered). Please inquire early on about the placement procedure. In some cases, you will have to contact representatives from your intended degree course during their office hours.

http://verwaltung.uni-koeln.de/abteilung21/content/beratungsangebote/pruefungsaemter/index_ger.html.

Note: For degree courses that always begin in the winter semester, you may only begin the summer semester in an even semester (e.g. 2\textsuperscript{nd} or 4\textsuperscript{th}), or the winter semester in an odd semester (e.g. 3\textsuperscript{rd} or 5\textsuperscript{th}), provided there is space available. If you have been placed in a semester out of sync with this cycle, you may only apply for the next lower semester. In this case, by submitting an application you implicitly give your permission to be moved down a semester.
